Dr. Andrej Findor is an Associate Professor at the Institute of European Studies and International Relations at Comenius University in Bratislava. His research interests include moral judgment and its relation to political attitudes, and interventions aimed at reducing stereotypes, prejudice and discriminatory behavior against stigmatized out-groups, and persuasive communication for positive social change.

When: October 23, 2019 at 4:30pm to 6pm
Where: Room 2409 Joyner Library

The Visegrad guest lectures have been sponsored by the International Visegrad Fund and in collaboration with the Department of Political Science and the Security Studies Program.